Hello Alex,

Please find a blank copy of a Dog Bite Witness Statement attached to this email. Please complete it at your earliest convenience. It would contain a recollection of the events to the best of the individual's knowledge as witnessed/experienced by the individual completing the statement.

The statement would include:

- date, time, and location of incident
- full details of the animal involved
- any information about the individuals involved and how this information was obtained
- recollection of events in chronological order
- any photographs/videos of the incident and injuries
- photographs will need to be signed and dated by the individual who took them

Please note that the completion of a witness statement may compel you to court or to an appeal if any enforcement is contested by the accused. When the statement is completed in full simply reply to this email and attached the completed template.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. As stated in our phone conversation the King Officer, Kaleb Gardiner, is CC'd on this email and will be back on shift to follow up on Monday August 19th.

Thank you in advance!

Good Morning Neeru

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today.

As discussed please have your daughter use the attached witness statement to document her side of the incident if she chooses.

Please note this will be used as evidence in my investigation to determine the outcome.

Some points to include are,

Date, time, and location.

What occurred including before, during ,and after.

I am including the below link to obtain a King Dog License.

Can you please confirm is Charn Gill is your son as I was able to locate a Dog named Bear on Woodland Acres Cres and will update the file that you have moved.

Pet Licence | Township Of King
